Selection

The selection will be done by a selection committee. The decision is final

End of May, the selected artists will be notified of the jury's decision and of the number of works selected – 3 maximum

Features works :

All exhibited works will be executed with PASTEL SEC, sanguine, charcoal.

Mixed techniques are accepted on the condition that Pastel Sec represents more than half of the work.

For legal reasons copies or reproductions of existing works are forbidden in our exhibitions, as well as works made during training.

The works should be framed with a simple frame and a strong hooking system -the association will not be responsible in case of breakage or damage due to non-compliance to this last point-.

The works must bear a label or a card stuck on the back, indicating : first name, last name and / or nickname of the artist, the title of the work, the dimensions (frame included), le phone number and the selling price.

Sale of works:

The artists must commit themselves to put their works available for sale. For the proper functioning, only organizers are authorised to achieve sales. In case of sale, the artist must pay a charge of 15% of work amount, for the benefit of Horizon Pastel association.

Responsibilities :

The association undertakes to take great care of works, but declines any responsibility in case of theft, fire, or other damage, during the filing period or exhibition. Each exhibitor may insure his artist works if necessary.

Concerning the receipt and return of works by parcel, the association declines any responsibility in case of theft, loss, fire or damage of any kind during transport (go and return). Horizon pastel is not liable for any damage due to the carrier.

The selected artist authorizes « Horizon Pastel » to use his name and image and those of his works exhibited in all the communication media, including production and printing of postcards (1 image per exhibiting artist will be chosen by Horizon Pastel). The postcards will be put up for sale during the biennial and all profits will go directly to Horizon Pastel to raise funds to finance part of the exhibition.

On duty :

Each exhibitor is asked to ensure at least one on-duty time during the period of exhibition, of course depending on his availability

Activity :

Each day it will be possible to carry out demonstrations and training courses in pastel. Any exhibitor wishing to participate in the demonstrations must indicate his dates and times of availability. The amount of the eventual sale of the demonstration works is the artist responsibility.
